EVENT SCHEDULE

UNITY WEEK August 18 - 23 (Monday - Saturday)

Beginning August 18 - 23 Monday thru Saturday, members from several cultures will take part in a Unity Day community initiative called the "Community Center Cultural Exchange Program." During this week, people will experience, taste, and embrace communities that they have never seen before. Participating community centers will have performances in traditional dress, art exhibits, slide show presentations, cultural delicacies, language lessons and more. Here is the cultural exchange schedule:

Monday: Experience the roots of Africa right here in Houston on August 18th. To get more information call (713) 271-8988

Tuesday: Travel to China without leaving Houston August 19th. Witness the Chinese Community Center and the exquisite traditions that make their culture so unique. For more information about The Chinese Community Center visit www.ccchouston.org.

Wednesday: A prominent aspect of Houston is its Jewish neighborhoods. August 20th, take time to learn about the Jewish faith, values, and renowned culture. Check out www.jcchouston.org to see more.

Thursday: August 21th, the Arab communities in Houston will open its doors and showcase their splendid individuality. Read more about our Arab neighbors at www.acc-houston.com

Friday: The Latin and Hispanic areas of Houston are proud and exciting. August 22th, enter the Ripley House and take part in the distinct Spanish heritage. Log onto www.neighborhoodcenters.org to obtain more information about the Ripley House.
